Milwaukee Wants Lake To Ocean Transportation

MILWAUKEE, Wis., July 21.— Passage of the measure to open the Great Lakes waterways to ocean navigation will find Milwaukee prepared to become an ocean port, according to Phil A. Grun, business manager of the Milwaukee Association of Commerce. "Milwaukee, like many other lake ports," said Grun, "already has marine interests equal to most of the ocean ports, as regards both facilities and tonnage handling."

SOLD SOLDIERS HOME LINIMENT FOR TEQUILA

Why should anyone in his right mind drink a mixture in a tequila bottle which looks for all the world like horse liniment, and smells worse? And at the same time pay 6¢ a bottle for the privilege?

There "ain't" any answer. But that's what our soldiers now in the base hospital at Fort Bliss said. "Here's looking at you" never before they turned up their toes.

W. H. Black, internal revenue inspector, who is somewhat of an authority when it comes to anything in the booze line, declared Tuesday at the hearing of Sepulveda Garcia, who was charged with selling the stuff, that the "mystery" contained among other things 95 per cent straight alcohol.

E. P. & S. W. STATION AGENT AT OSBURN HILLS HIMSELF

BISHOP, Ariz., July 21.—T. W. Seik, station agent for the El Paso & Southwestern Railway at Odessa, here, committed suicide this afternoon by cutting his throat with a razor. Seik was 50 years old and leaves a widow and two sons. For many years he was station agent at Fort Huachuca. Bad health is supposed to have been the cause of suicide.

And Thirsty, Too.

There's something about the sea that makes a fellow mad, Joe. "Yes—it's seemin' the wind a blowin' in from over the bar."—Life.

Long Distance Walks.

The storm last night somewhere between here and Deming played havoc with the wires and telephone communication is impossible until sometime later in the day. The storm was a blessing not only to the surrounding country but also in alleviating the heat, the thermometer registering as low as 6° at 5 o'clock this a.m.

El Paso Bank Boys Next Sunday.

Big preparations for next Sunday's baseball game are being made by the local team which will play the present of the First National Bank of El Paso. Lieutenant Ellis, one of the best pitchers in the southwest, will be on the mound for the Columbus boys, and if he has the proper support the bombers should be easy picking. Our boys can count with any of them, and if they can hold the El Paso boys in it should be a great game. Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock is the time. It is a little early for a ball game, but the bankers want to catch the 4 o'clock train home.

NOTICE!

You are invited to attend the rehearsals of the Elite Jesters daily from 4 p.m. till 5 p.m. at the Columbus theater. The Elite Jesters will display their talents at a dance to be given Friday, July 23, at the Kukhi Club.

AN APPEAL

Who are the men who have the time? To want to change the name of the Sunshine state, New Mexico. And are they seeking fame?

Since I'm not dumb, then I shall ask that you this mercy show: To leave the present name unchanged. Thus sparing us this blow.

It's many rocky mountain steep Are wild and rugged too, The valleys green and verdant, The skies are always blue.

The sunshine pours its golden rays On valley, hill and plain, On miner, ranchman, millionaire. Then falls the blessed rain.

We claim it's Nature's garden spot, We love New Mexico; To call it by another name Would fill our hearts with woe.
